

Companies should be allowed to own fewer stations in one area, not more. Our democracy depends on an informed public which I believe is not possible when all the news is coming from one source.